PALM VALLEY COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

Board of Directors Meeting – Open Session Procedures

Purpose: The Open Board Meetings are held in compliance with the Arizona Revised Statutes (Law) in order for the Board's elected volunteer Directors to have an opportunity to conduct the business of the Association on behalf of its members. The Board of Directors are homeowner volunteers serving your community and we want to be conscientious of their time and make sure the meetings run efficiently and effectively.

The Arizona Sunshine Law encourages homeowner attendance at these open meetings but within the limits of the Open Meeting law. It is important that homeowners understand and observe these legal limitations so that the board has an opportunity to conduct the association's business in a timely manner and to protect the Association, themselves and the Board's Agents against legal liability.
